

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1442 without my signature.

Current law does not prohibit school districts or charter schools from offering project-based learning and problem-based teaching strategies to its students. Therefore, this bill is unnecessary.

For this reason, I am not signing this bill.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger